

2011 BEE-KNIGHT COMBO

at White Day Golf Course (Fairmont, WV)

---

The East Fairmont and Preston High Cross Country teams would like to invite you to the Bee-Knight Combo Invitational. This invitational will replace the Mountaintop Combo and is a temporary solution to the ongoing construction on the Preston High Campus. Just like the Mountaintop Combo, the Bee-Knight Combo is a unique invitational that judges the top cross country program in the area. This is accomplished by adding the boys and girls team scores together to get a combined school score.

When: Tuesday, September 27, 2011

Where: The Bee-Knight Combo Invitational will take place at White Day Golf Course near Fairmont, WV. The course consists of groomed grass with a mixture of flats and hills. The course is very viewer friendly. The White Day Course will also be the new home of the 2011 Region I AAA Championship.

Directions: From I-79 South, exit 139 Pricket's Fort. Turn right at the end of the ramp, travel approximately ¼ mile. At the T turn right on Route 73 North, White Day Golf Course is about 3 ½ miles on the right.
